

COL DAVID L. ANDERSON

COMMANDER
U.S. ARMY GARRISON, HAWAII

(EFFECTIVE 19 JUN 02)

Colonel David L. Anderson was born in Tooele, Utah, October 5, 1956. He graduated from Utah State University in 1979 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Finance and was commissioned a second lieutenant of Field Artillery.

His first assignment was as a Fire Support Officer and Fire Direction Officer for B Battery, 2d Battalion, 20th Field Artillery, 8th Infantry Division in Germany. He served in Germany from December 1979 to March 1983. His second tour was with 1st Battalion, 27th Field Artillery, 4th Infantry Division, Fort Carson, Colorado, from November 1983 to June 1988. There he served as Battalion Fire Direction Officer, Commander B Battery, 1st Battalion 27th Field Artillery (8 inch) and Commander, C Battery, 10th Field Artillery (MLRS). While serving as Assistant Professor of Military Science in the Reserve Officer Training Corps program at Brigham Young University from 1988 to 1991 he also earned a Masters of Business Administration degree. Following attendance at the US Army Command and General Staff College at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, he served as G3 Plans and Exercise Officer and Battalion Executive Officer both in the 6th Infantry Division, Fort Wainwright, Alaska, from 1992 to 1994. He was then assigned as Senior Brigade Fire Support Observer/Controller at the Joint Readiness Training Center, Fort Polk, Louisiana. In 1996 LTC Anderson assumed command of the US Army Garrison, Fort Greely, Alaska. Since June of 2000 he has served as a Division Chief and Executive Officer to the Chief of Legislative Liaison, in the Office of the Secretary of the Army, the Pentagon.

Colonel Anderson attended the Field Artillery Officer Basic Course, Infantry Officer Advanced Course, the US Army Command and General Staff College, and the Naval War College.

Military Awards and decoration include the Legion of Merit, Meritorious Service Medal (four oak leaf clusters), Army Commendation Medal, Army Achievement Medal, National Defense Service Medal, Parachutist Badge, and the Army Staff Badge.

He is married to the former Wendy Giles. They have a daughter, Camille who recently graduated from Syracuse University in Syracuse, New York.